WE are informed upon reliable authorit that the probability of the British Consulates in Formosa being closed seems at present to be much smaller than was the case some time ago: and in fact that there is everlikelihood that the idea will be abandone This information will no doubt be read with pleasure, not only by those who are im mediately interested in the question, by all who do not desire to see portunities for furthering foreign trade these parts, which have been obtained great difficulty and with many sacrifices: wantonly thrown away, through theignorance or supineness of those in authority. The facts which were set forth in the memoria forwarded some time and by the Formesa and Amoy Merchants upon the proposed closing of the Consulates, showed distinct ly that the statements made by Si RUTHERFORD ALCOCK with regard to the insignificance of the trails were entirely erroneous; but it seems by some unaccountable oversight, this do. cument did not for a long time get to the proper quarter. It will be recollected that the question was referred by the Foreign Office to the Board of Trade, but the memorial from the Formosa and Amoy Merchants was not sent on, so that neither Mr. Lypevre, President of the Board, nor Mr. Magniac, M. P., who was appointed to assist in the consideration of the subject, was, been rectified; and it is stated, on reliable authority, that there is little likelihood of Sir RUTHERFORD ALCOCK'S recommendation to close the Consulates being acted upon. He draws the inference that people treated the shipwrecked crew stands any other given man will have the same out in marked contrast with what has too frequently liappened when vessels have been wrecked upon the const of China. The action taken infact, exceeds in kindness and consideration what could be looked for even from the as himself, speaks in the same terms of them, most civilized and powerful nations. Every want of the men was supplied; a small vessel was given to them to take their away; and a letter full of kindly and generous sentiments sent to them by the Chinese Governor A great deal of this might appear to be susceptible of being discounted by the consideration that no doubt the inhabitants of Luchu were anxious to get rid of the shipwrecked ferently from themselves (except in certain him there in his easy chair. It is possible that this was done with the idea that it would be used in China, and that a complimentary recognition of the Son of Heaven

THE following article, which has been communicated by an occasional contributor, is inserted as likely to be of interest, though the views expressed in it are not fully endorsed. No doubt, as the writer says, the public, at home judge of China by analogy with facts the same in this case. Lots of little facts, familiar to home people, and the residents besides those detailed above, become, to the out here form their judgments from the analogist of the Other, striking additional facts familiar to China people. Both argue proofs, because they coincide with previous to a certain extent from analogy, but the analogies of the one set of reasoners are exist; and what is more, can in most cases be proved to exist only in imagination. Any-Port afford every facility, at moderate churges, impossibility of establishing analogies between matters at home and those here, and the consequent likelihood of arguments based on such analogies being fallacious. It is too much to say that people in China consider their views "infallible." All they consider much more likely to be correct than the CAISSON GATE, AND POWERFUL CENTRIFUGAL views of home writers, which are often of the writers on China subjects in the home papers, however, is that they completely ignore information which is easily accessible to them. A study of blue books and despatches would prevent nine-tenths of the errors that are made; and the only real difference between the two classes of reasoners is that the one rely upon clever writing and fine argument—much after the fashion of our contributor-while the other have. with considerable labour, mastered the facts set forth in a series of despatches, which have probably for ten or fifteen years formed the chief subject of their daily reading, attention, and thought. If writers at home would take the trouble to read the Blue Books, there would not be so much difference between them and the residents in China. We might t least avoid such absurdities as one actually committed by the English Government within the last few years, of tendering an fact proved to depend on that anology to the Chinese Government for an of that place had laid an ambuscade to take act of reprisul in Formosa, after the Taoutai the life of Her Majesty's Consul. This fact was positively never alluded to in Parliament or in the Home papers, where the whole matter was discussed, although it was recorded in distinct terms in the very blue book upon which the debate in Parliament, and the articles in the newspapers, were based. The Analogy of the Other? facts set forth in the Blue Book were the basis of the "analogy" on the part of the China writers; ignorance of them, the basis of the analogies framed at home-and this case is a very little more glaring than many others of the same kind which might be cited. If people both in China and at home argue in a measure from analogy, it is at ANALOGY. We have often heard that analogy is very dangerous artifice of argument, almost certain, if pressed, to lead to a false conclusion, because the analogy itself is very rarely. true throughout. There are two kinds of analogy very commonly employed, the analogy of Self, and the analogy of the Other. To illustrate these two, it is only necessary to quote two common expressions: - "You decline has taken place, caused principally by this?" and :- "This cannot be true. If the facts are as they appear to be, you would be the first to say that, and not this?" In these two modes of reasoning the speaker draws what he supposes would have been the case with the other party to the discussion.

In the first case, the analogy is very natural, so natural that it is very often mistaken for strict argument. A man knows that he has such and such feelings, such and such appreciations of outside things, colours harmonies, scents, &c., that he reasons thus and thus on particular classes of facts; that such and such lines of thought are most natural to him, and others slow to sugges feelings and sensations, will reason similarly, and think in the same grooves. He sees the analogy to hold to a certain extent, for his immediate neighbour is pleased with the same combinations of light, sound, and scent reasons as he does, thinks as he does. He therefore makes the rule universal

The other kind of analogy is loss common, perhaps, but not less conclusive to the minds of those who use it. These persons have a deeper insight into the variations in human nature than the former class, and are able to differentiate very clearly the characteristics of various orders of men. They do not indeed say that this man sees or hears difto the particular case before them; Foras. much as they have no certainty to go upon,

The flaws in the argument of these latter are manifest, at least to people in China. MR. BRIGHT AS AMBASSADOR.

(Daily, News.) A speculation has been interchanged between some English and American journal and orators Hongkong Bank Shares, New-20 per cent bich is more creditable to the feelings than to the judgment of its promoters. Mr.,Bright, it has been surgested, would he a very proper person to send upon a special mission to Washnaton, for the purpose of settling the Alcount claims and the Risheries dispute. This wellmeant proposal is an exceedingly pawise one; Mr. Bright is justly honoured in the United States; and no doubt his reception in that country would be cordial and even enthusinetic. He has carned the admiration, and in some. degree the gratitude, of the American people. But liusiness is one thing, and sentiment is nor the English Government is likely to let them exchange places. Mr. Bright himself is the last man in the world to do so. As Lord Granville suid some time since in the House of Lords, there is no public man who has more of the true John Bull temper in him than the President of the Board of Trade. It is a mistake to suppose that Mr. Bright takes a more American view of the American claims and He . was formerly to advance of them; but they linve come up to his original position, which the Clarendon-Johnson Treaty embodied, and be ope, many years of public ecryice before him. but he will be more useful as a politician in Indo-Chuese Sugar Company-1-Eurland than he could be as a diplomatist in

TRADE UNIONISM (Pall Mall Gazette. Narrow-minded people will persist in objecting to incider, notwith standing all that the advocates of perfect freedom action to trades unionists can urge on its schalf. A case has just occurred in which it would have been more politic for those who gave vent o their generous feelings to have avoided the use of the knife if possible. It seems that a dispute has arisen between Messrs. Invited Co. hat manufacturers, of the Southwark Bridgepad, and their employes, who all belong to the Hattern' Society, with regard to the firm employing apprentices. Mesers, Jay, deeming the men unfair, discharged all of them, and took pull in their place non-society men, among whom was one, a Frenchman, by name Theodore Molneanz. On Saturday wek this man was having a dimute with some of the society men at a public-house, and immediately after fell to the ground, severely stabled in two places. He is now lying at the Middleser Hospital, where the magistrate from Marlborough-street police court attended on Saturday to take his deposition, but he was unable to make one. Our country really talks so much about its freedom that it is only natural a stranger should suppose,

LET US REASON TOGETHER!

Why are you sick? There must be a cause Nature never intended that we should pass, as many do, nearly one-half of our lives in bodily pain. Thus it becomes evident that you have, in some way, broken Nature's laws. Your Sickheadache, your Norvous-headache, your Biliousheadache, Liver Complaint, Puin in the Side. and up under the Shoulder-blades—your Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Flatulency, and Heart hurn-your Costiveness, Piles, Sickness at the Stomach-the Pimples, Roughness, and Blotches, on your face, neck, and arms—all these and many other troubles and feelings of illness, are simply evidences of the fact that you have broken the laws on which Nature bases the bodily case, comfort, health and strength of the human family; and the chances are as a bundred to one, that unless your system gets prompt aid, your trouble will go on increasing and gradually getting worse, until it is beyond human help. The point of great importance, then, is to obtain the proper remedy—something that will cure safely, and not by violent action or corroding influence jeopardize the health it is intended to restore. There is such a medicine—perfectly safe for the weakest and most delicate, yet powerful enough for the strongest—searching out every atom of diseased or depraved matter, and expelling or neutralizing it—giving wonderful tone and strength to the stomach, vigor to the liver, and regularity to the bowels;—need we say that this medicine

BRISTOLS VEGETABLE SUGAR-COATED PILLS strongly anti-bilious, powerfully tonic, and the best of all nervines. They are the result of long years of careful and laborious study; and in saying they are the best of all purgatives, we only repeat what is generally conceded.

For Sale at the Hongrong Dispensary. USEFUL PERFUME.

The expansive liquid odors which are sold in small vials as perfumes for the handkerchief are of no particular use or benefit to those who use them. It is not claimed that they exercise any beneficial influence upon the health, nor that they can in any way mitigate or relieve the nervous troubles with which so many ladies are ufflicted; in fact their use is of no benefit the ertent of $60,000 on Buildings, or on Goods

FLORIDA WATER! It is one of the surest and speediest of cures for every form of nervousness. It relieves headachs when other applications completely fail. It reinvigorates the fatigued and overtaxed body. It imparts force and buoyancy to the mental powers. It clears the complex. ion of all pimples, impurities, and roughness, and to the faint and exhausted invalid it lends strength, and gives ease and comfort, and yet withal it is

THE MOST DELIGHTFUL OF PERFUMES.

The sense of smell never tires of it. Its fresh ness and exquisite fragrance when once enjoyed become ever after a positive necessity. It is this wonderful combination of the useful with the agreeable, that has made MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA! WATER SO widely celebrated and so highly prized. In many warm climates, four to six bottles of it are mixed with the water of each bath, which he invigorates, recuperates, and strengthens the system, that the enervating effects of climate are thrown off.

It is not alone in the richness or delicacy of its fragrance that MUBBAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER equals, and even surpasses, the most expensive of the French and English perfumery, but also in its lasting power. The handkerchief sprinkled with it, is perfumed for weeks, or until it is washed; and, unlike the English and French extracts, time does not deteriorate its fragrance, but rather serves to refine or spiritualize its exquisite aroma.

As a cosmeric it is unequalled, imparting softness, clearness, smoothness, and whiteness to the face, neck, arms, and hands; but as there are counterfeits, it is necessary always to ask for the FLORIDA WATER prepared by LANMAN & KEMP, New York, who are the sole proprietors of the genuine article.
